

Bad Boy

CARYS

You've been such a bad, bad boy

Knock, knock, knock, I'm knocking at your door
'Cause I knew what you did the night before
Clothes on the bed don't belong to me
Was I in your head when she was on her knees?

Don't lie to me
I'm smarter than you think
Knock, knock, knock, I'm knocking at your door
I'm not the same girl that you knew before

You've been such a bad, bad boy
Now I've gotta come and take away your toys
You don't get to play with me no more
'Cause you've been a bad, bad, bad, bad, bad boy

You were the cage and now I'm free
But you're playing on your own and you're thinking 'bout me
Who I'm with, what I'm wearing underneath
Taste my skin, but only in your dreams

Don't lie to me
I'm smarter than you think
Knock, knock, knock, I'm knocking at your door
I'm not the same girl that you knew before

You've been such a bad, bad boy
Now I've gotta come and take away your toys
You don't get to play with me no more
'Cause you've been a bad, bad, bad, bad, bad boy

Your T-shirt's gone
Did she take it home?
She came and left her lipstick on the glass

You've been such a bad, bad boy
Now I've gotta come and take away your toys
You don't get to play with me no more
'Cause you've been a bad, bad, bad, bad, bad boy
