

We're both creatures of the night
Can't see here in the dark
You're in my mind but out of sight
And it's tearing this apart

You're different from the other guys
I don't have to twirl my hair and bat my eyes, eyes
We're not used to all this hype
We're not used to all this hype, hype

But we're stuck in the hype, hype
But we're stuck in the hype, hype
Hype, hype
But we're stuck in the hype, hype

I love kicking it with you
Just us in our secret club
And I might've broken all the rules
But I won't be sweating 'cause

You're different from the other guys
I don't have to twirl my hair and bat my eyes, eyes
We're not used to all this hype
We're not used to all this hype, hype

But we're stuck in the hype, hype
But we're stuck in the hype, hype
Hype, hype
But we're stuck in the hype, hype
Hype, hype
But we're stuck in the hype, hype

We are who we are who we are
Let him know, shut it down
We are who we are who we are
Let him know, shut it down, shut it down
We are who we are who we are
Let him know, shut it down
We are who we are who we are
Let him know, shut it down, shut it down
Shut it down, shut it down
Let him know, shut it down
Shut it down, shut it down

Yeah, we're stuck in the hype, hype
But we're stuck in the hype, hype
(We're not used to all this hype)
Hype, hype
But we're stuck in the hype, hype
(Yeah, we're stuck in the)
Hype, hype
(We're not used to, we're not used to)
Hype, hype
(And I love kicking it with you)
Hype, hype
