

The girl standing in front of you isn't just anybody
Yeah, you leave her calls unanswered, you're missing out
I don't give this attention to just anybody
I wish I was the voice in your head 'cause mine's getting loud

Screaming, chills up my spine
I'm feeling all of the signs
Got visions of you pulling me in
The way our hands just fit
I can see it and I like it

I must be psychic
Out of the blue, see a future with you
I must be psychic
Summer in June, dancing under the moon
Don't say it's crazy
Tell me, can you see it yet?
I must be psychic
Psychic and I like it

Chasing you like a boyband isn't really working for me
Like a teenage dirtbag baby, I'm your biggest fan
(Ahhh, yeah)

Screaming, chills up my spine
I'm feeling all of the signs
Got visions of you pulling me in
The way our hands just fit
I can see it and I like it

I must be psychic
Out of the blue, see a future with you
I must be psychic
Summer in June, dancing under the moon
Don't say it's crazy
Tell me, can you see it yet?
I must be psychic
Psychic and I like it

Don't make me walk away
'Cause that would be tragic
Tell me you want me, babe?
I think that we could be magic

(Ahh I must be)
Psychic
Out of the blue, see a future with you
I must be psychic
Summer in June, dancing under the moon
Don't say it's crazy
Tell me, can you see it yet?
I must be psychic
Psychic, and I like it

(Psychic)
(Psychic and I like it)
