

Some Of You

CARYS

I had you
I lost you
I'm so scared to be alone
Though you're not something to own

I want you
I still do
But if you're not ready yet
Then I'll take what I can get

Cause it's me
I'm so weak
We could pretend to be friends
Pretend to be friends

Yeah, cause even if it's bittersweet
Need a piece of you that I can keep
A shirt or a bracelet, a call on the weekend
I'll take what I can get

What I get, what I get
I'll take what I get
What I get, what I get
I'm only getting some of
What I want, cause I want
Every little bit of you
I want the whole of you
But I'll settle for some of you

I still care
It's not fair
That you cannot be replaced
Nobody, no other face

Compares
You're so rare
It's pathetic how I wait
For your mind to change

Yeah, cause even if it's bittersweet
Need a piece of you that I can keep
A shirt or a bracelet, a call on the weekend

What I get, what I get
I'll take what I get
What I get, what I get
I'm only getting some of
What I want, cause I want
Every little bit of you
I want the whole of you
But I'll settle for some of you

What I get, what I get
What I get, what I get (Oh...)
What I want, cause I want (I'm so scared to be alone...)
What I get what I get (Oh, oh!)

What I get, what I get
I'll take what I get
What I want, cause I want
Every little bit of you
I want the whole of you
But I'll settle for some of you
