Met her on Collins and 8th, I had the Wraith
Double parked out of her place as I debate
Should I take her out for steak or should I wait?
Tryna hit no time for a date I gotta break out
Yeah, girl, we doin' take out
I'm tryna hit and spin it, she tryna make out
She wet as a pool, I brought her lake out
Same way she found my room, she found her way out
Yeah, and I don't stress, nah
Hundred women out here, baby, you the best one
Strip you from your ex like an interception
Got your legs around my neck, I'm tryna wreck somethin'

I'm on the yacht with a couple thots
Wifey callin', but I got her blocked
I'm in the Yams, but she on the block
Telling me she changing all the locks
Got a couple thinkin' you the one and only (Yeah)
Let me bust it down, let me flip the story, yeah
I could change your mind, I could change your mind
Go and tell your ex, he ain't do right (Right)
Take a ride with me
Switchin' up the time zones, where you tryna be?
Anywhere you wanna go, just a flight from me
Now close the penthouse doors for some privacy
