

Gloomy Day

Casey Abrams

She only likes the sun
I only like the rain
She's out there having fun
She said she'd come but she never came

So I turned off all the lights
Another hard night and again

It's a gloomy day
And you got me dancing in the pouring rain
It's gloomy day
It's like somebody painted my blue sky gray
And wiped out all the pain
And I feel the sun coming through the clouds again

When I call her she's always busy
When she calls I'm always there
When she smiles the words come easy
When there's silence I get scared

That her eyes will stray
And the magic we have will slip away

It's a gloomy day
And you got me dancing in the pouring rain
It's gloomy day
It's like somebody painted my blue sky gray
And wiped out all the pain
And I feel the sun coming through the clouds again

Part of me just can't let it be
And is hoping for the sun
But part of me thinks it's all a dream
And it's wrong for me to keep on hanging on

It's a gloomy day
And you got me dancing in the pouring rain
It's gloomy day
It's like somebody painted my blue sky gray
And wiped out all the pain
And I feel the sun coming through the clouds again

Gloomy days are going away
Gloomy days are going away
Gloomy days are going away
Gloomy days are going away
