Moonlight
Starlight
Moonlight
Starlight

Open your third eye
And let it all in
It may be to your surprise
That you'll always win

Moonlight
Starlight
Moonlight
Starlight
Moonlight
Starlight

Open your third eye
And let it all in
It may be to your surprise
That you'll always win

All of the stars above us
All of the stars below
All of the stars between us
All of the stars they glow

Open your third eye
And let it all in
(Let it in, let it in, let it in, let it in)
It may be to your surprise
That you'll always win

Open your third eye
(Let it in, let it in)
And let it all in
(Let it in, let it in, let it in, let it in)
It may be to your surprise
That you'll always win
