

Solid Rock

Casey Barnes

Out here nothin' changes, not in a hurry anyway
You feel the endlessness, comin' of the light o' day

We're talkin' 'bout a chosen place
You wouldn't sell it in a marketplace
Well

Well just a minute now

You're standin' on solid rock
You're standin' on sacred ground
You're livin' on borrowed time
And the winds of change
Are blowin' down the line

Right down the line

Round about the dawn of time
The dreamin' all began
The crowd of people came
They were lookin' for their promised land

We're runnin' from the heart o' darkness
Searchin' for the heart o' light

But it was their paradise

You're standin' on solid rock
You're standin' on sacred ground
You're livin' on borrowed time
And the winds of change
Were blowing cold that night

No!

They were standin' on the shore one day
They saw the white sails in the sun
It wasn't long before they felt the sting
White man, white law, white gun

Don't tell me that it's justified
'Cause somewhere someone lied

Yeah, someone lied
Someone lied, oh
Someone lied

Now you're standin' on solid rock
You're standin' on sacred ground
You're livin' on borrowed time
And the winds of change
Are blowin' down the line

The solid rock
You're standin' on sacred ground
You're livin' on borrowed time
And the winds of change

Are blowin' down the line

The solid rock
Sacred ground
Livin' on borrowed time
And the winds of change
Are blowin' down the line

No!
