

Strong Enough

Casey Donahew Band

She told me to not to call her,
So I told her that I wouldn't,
Tried my best to forget her but I couldn't
I'm not strong enough to watch her walk away

Standing in the middle of the street broken hearted,
Trying to wrap my mind around the reasons that we parted,
I'm not strong enough to watch her walk away,
Now I'm not strong enough to make her stay

Well I should of saw the signs that were pointing that direction,
Looking in her eyes I could see there's no affection,
Everyone kept saying that it's never gonna last,
I'm the only one still living in the past

Walking in a circle while feeling so confused,
I'm the one to blame she's the one who got used,
I'm not strong enough to watch her walk away,

Twisted off and turned down past the point of no returning,
Standing at the bottom still looking for her light still burning,
I'm not strong enough to watch her walk away,
Now I'm not strong enough to make her stay

Well I should of saw the signs that were pointing that direction,
Looking in her eyes I could see there's no affection,
Everyone kept saying that it's never gonna last,
I'm the only one still living in the past
