

Lonely

Casey Donovan

Standing at your door
I'm shaking, we've been here before
There's no point trying anymore
Can't keep on begging you to love me

I need to walk away
I can't do this what's another day
Maybe things will change
Then I hear you calling me to stay

Too late to say you love me
Cause you don't want anything from me
I can't just pretend
I don't need another friend
Guess I'm stuck on being lonely

Driving in my car, speeding
Lost all control, no feeling
White lines blurred to Earth
Stupid girl look what you've done

It's not as easy as it seems
You keep haunting my dreams
No matter how far I go
Your still calling my name

Too late to say you love me
Cause you don't want anything from me
I can't just pretend
I don't need another friend
Guess I'm stuck on being lonely

Ooh, ooh, ooh, ooh

Too late to say you love me
Cause you don't want anything from me
I can't just pretend
I don't need another friend
Guess I'm stuck on being

Too late to say you love me
Cause you don't want anything from me
I can't just pretend
No I don't need another friend
Guess I'm stuck on being lonely
