

Your Heart

Casey J

These hands will wipe the tears for those who cry to you at night
And these feet will walk the miles to the place of those broken-hearted
And my voice will cry out for those who cry out for you

I'll be your heart to the ones I meet
I'll show love to the least of these
I would have never known if you didn't first love me
I've learned to love when I'm your hands and feet
I've learned to love I'll be your hands and feet

These eyes will see the hurt of those who suffer silently
And this mind will be like yours and believe what you called us to be
Unselfish, unchanging, unfailing love

I'll be your heart to the ones I meet
I'll show love to the least of these
I would have never known if u didn't first love me
I've learned to love when I'm your hands and feet
I've learned to love I'll be your hands and feet

I want more
I want more
I want more
Of you

Make me more
Make me more
Make me more
Like you

I'll be your heart to the ones I meet
I'll show love to the least of these
I would have never known if u didn't first love me
I've learned to love when I'm your hands and feet
I've learned to love I'll be your hands and feet

I've learned to love when I'm your hands and feet
I've learned to love I'll be your hands and feet

Unselfish, Unchanging, Unfailing love
