Young CV, the mob boss, bitch, I ride for my squad
Like Al Pacino, you'll get whacked, we'll put that guap on your top
Tried to play for me a sucker, but I was not what you thought
I might do a short stack and spend that night on a watch
I been hearin' all these niggas tryna be somethin' they not Eyes closed, I'm grindin' hard, I swear I don't see nobody (Nobody)
Life hit me with some real shit, but I stayed down and got it (Got it)
Make sure all my niggas straight, I swear that's one thing about me
These niggas frontin', I kept it one hundred
She's like, "Casey, I be seein' you stuntin'"
She told me she want it, I'm already knowin'
Do she want me or this dough that I'm blowin'?
Ring the alarm, shit be goin'
She gon' backflip for that money for sure
We be addin' it up so crazy all night
And then get right back at it in the morn'
We gon' get more, we gon' get more
Then we gon' double right back and get more
I swear chasin' hoes is really annoyin'
I just made a hundred thousand on tour
I just made him pick it up off the floor
Bitch, I'm made, yeah, we got it for sure
I just hit, she just made me record
Cash out, count it up when I'm bored, woah

I can't complain about what I can't change, I made bank
Talkin' hundred K in like ten days, now what you think?
I'm runnin' 'round, my life is a maze
But I'm a stubborn ass nigga, I'm just stuck in my ways
And at a young age, gotta get stacks too fast
A blast from the past pullin' up, I'll stunt on your ass
I wanted the cash, they talk funny, sit and I laugh
Then I add it all up, it was just part of the math

I get dressed and take flight though, ice on, light show
I don't even write though, I'm lookin' for a light ho
A dark ho, pull up in the night though
Obey her thirst and I'm lookin' like some Sprite though
Nigga on point and I ain't tryna make a typo
Cuttin' off the fat and we ain't talkin' 'bout lipo
Nigga bustin' dance moves, Moonwalk, Michael
I am so high though, nigga, wave, typhoon
It's over with, I'm goin' big

Yeah, shorty asked me how I get that whip, bitch, I paid for it
Asked me how I got all of these diamonds, bitch, I paid for it
