

Royalty

Casey Veggies

Haha, yeah
This is a world premier
Uh, oh man
Since y'all forgot
Loyalty, treat me like royalty
Yeah, since you need to be reminded
Loyalty, treat me like royalty
Whoa, yeah, uh

I'm probably way better off alone
But I promise, girl, I'll never do you wrong (for sure)
I pay my own bills, baby girl, I'm grown (uh)
You want me or want my money? What you want? (Yeah)
Baby, you could be my love like the song say
Fuck them other hoes, I fuck with you the long way
They be blowing up my phone now (uh)
How you switch up, tryna come back 'cause I'm on now?

She said she's tired of me being on the low with her
I think she probably thought that I was tryna grow with her
Vacation, go shopping, hit the stores with her
Hit Vegas at the floor fight, front row with her
Yeah, she a diamond and it show
Really I be eenie-meenie-minie with these hoes
Japanese dinner, I'm rocking Prada on my toes
Told bro I'ma keep working and I'm probably gonna explode
Aw man, I done got up in my mode
I get straight to the point, I don't parlay with these hoes
Tell me what the business, girl, you gotta let me know
If you wanna be my love then we gotta take it slow
Flyest in the city, been the hottest with the flow
She said, "You fucking other bitches then I gotta let you go", whoa

I'm probably way better off alone
But I promise, girl, I'll never do you wrong
I pay my own bills, baby girl, I'm grown (yeah)
You want me or want my money? What you want?
Baby, you could be my love like the song say
Fuck them other hoes, I fuck with you the long way
They be blowing up my phone now
How you switch up tryna come back 'cause I'm on now?
(Yeah, this is a world premier, ay)
How you switch up tryna come back 'cause I'm on now?

In this T-shirt and Dior's when I spit the verse
Ever since my birth I been puttin' in work
I used to walk by myself down 43rd
Still catch me in the city, baby, not the 'burbs
On the four-wheeler doing what them suckers can't Gettin' love from my people every single day
When they went Hollywood, I went the other way
Ten racks off buns, baby, make 'em shake
Shake them lames, come get some of this game
I'ma tear it out the frame while we pop champagne
We still got all our chains, she wanna be my main
Things won't ever be the same
I really can't complain, shit

I'm probably way better off alone
But I promise, girl, I'll never do you wrong (for sure)
I pay my own bills, baby girl, I'm grown (yeah)
You want me or want my money? What you want? (Uh)
Baby, you could be my love like the song say
Fuck them other hoes, I fuck with you the long way
They be blowing up my phone now
How you switch up tryna come back 'cause I'm on now? (Yeah, uh)
How you switch up tryna come back 'cause I'm on now?

Check the numbers, we gon' see who really hot (Yeah)
Check the stats, we them youngins brought the city out
She ask me, "Baby, should I wear my new heels or not?"
Took a couple shots, it brought her real feelings out
She left with me after she realize how I re' a knot
And she act different when them ballers bring them millies out
Loyalty, treat me like royalty
I keep you in my passenger seat if you spoil me
Yeah, my love, uh
This is a world premier

Just how had your own brand
Everything independent
That shit, like, you know
That shit mint, boy
Seeing you and Dom do that
Yeah, I respect it a lot
I know how it is, like, knowing who you are
I'm on the outside looking in, you like fucking perfect, you know what I'm saying? But What's your name, bro?
My name is Quake, but, uh, my name is Pat, I'm a producer from San Francisco
(Fire)
And I was just giving Casey his flowers because I seen him do a lot of independent shit by his self without the, the industry involved, and seeing him and Dom-
(And still doing it)
Still doing it
