

Emotions

Cashmere Cat

I don't feel nada
When we accidentally bump into each other
And you got somebody new, I don't mind her
Cause it feels so good now I don't feel nada
I don't feel emotions

Emotions but you're my emotions
You're my emo emotions
Emotions but you're my emotions
You're my emo emotions
Emotions but you're my emotions
You're my emo emotions
Emotions but you're my emotions
You're my emo emotions

Emotions you're my emotions
You're my emo emotions
Emotions you're my emotions
You're my emo emotions
Emotions you're my emotions
You're my emo emotions
Emotions you're my emotions
You're my emotions

I don't feel nada
So pour me another
Cause it feels so good now I don't feel nada
I don't feel emotions

Emotions but you're my emotions
You're my emo emotions
Emotions but you're my emotions
You're my emo emotions
Emotions but you're my emotions
You're my emo emotions
Emotions but you're my emotions
You're my emo emotions

Thought I'd be low, low, low and
Thought you'd be out my emotions but Thought I'd be low, low, low and, but

I don't feel nada
When we accidentally bump into each other
And you got somebody new, I don't mind her
Cause it feels so good now I don't feel nada
I don't feel nada

I wouldn't believe you
Something about the way you talk
I wouldn't trust you
Something about the way you talk
I couldn't live with you
Something about the way you talk
I couldn't love you
