

Broken Path

Caskets

From the start, it's the same old show
Every twist is a tale we know
But we can't go back, can't go back
No, we can't go back, can't go back
Every choice made is a dream we let fade
You could grab hold of the blade, make another mistake
Let's face the fact
We can't hold back

Is it all just in our heads?
Dreams of broken paths we've shed

Tired of being all the things we're not Falling short of the dreams we've got
But we can't go back, can't fall back
Into a past so black, we know that

I'd agree that we've fallen short
Always hiding in masks we've worn
There's no way back
No, we can't go back, we're told that

Is it all just in our heads?
Dreams of broken paths we've shed
'Cause we never wanna know
Why we're treated like a ghost
Is it all just in our
All just in our heads?

So heavy is our souls, I see them falling
Before we lose control, I see them breaking
Try to catch them all
We wanna feel it all
So heavy is our souls, I see them falling
Before we lose control, I see them breaking
Try to catch them all
We wanna feel it all

Every step made are choices betrayed
Cling to our old ways, bend until we break
Let's face the fact, we can't look back

Is it all just in our heads?
Dreams and broken paths we've shed
'Cause we never wanna know
Why we're treated like a ghost
Is it all just in our
All just in our heads?
