

Better by Myself

Caskey

'Cause the more I think about it, shit, I'm better by myself
Bein' in love with you just can't be good for my health
Born alone, you die alone, so look out for yourself
Bein' in love with you just can't be good for my health

Ayy, you caught me up at the worst times, yeah
And every time we get into it, you look at me like it's the first time
But this ain't the first time
Yeah, I heard your heartbeat, you heard mine
Don't know where to stop, it's a blurred line
And it's more than sex, we was raw
You expected me to lift you up, but you never catch me when I fall
And you expected me to do so many things you don't ever do at all
We at a draw, when you're turnin' to the law
Why you turn away? I'm showin' my flaws, please

And every time we fight, I start to get down on myself
I don't know if this right here is so good for my health

'Cause the more I think about it, shit, I'm better by myself
Bein' in love with you just can't be good for my health
Born alone, you die alone, so look out for yourself
Bein' in love with you just can't be good for my health

Don't call me up with that same talk 'bout how you changed
How replacements ain't the same
'Bout how the thought of you and I
This perfect picture that you frame
Don't know how we missed it then
I guess we look over things
Sometimes I look in the mirror and don't know who I am
You the one to blame
Okay, damn, you turned my heart into black
How could I ever go back?
All those nights, playin' with my emotions
I'm just repayin' you back, yeah
Sunday mornin' at yo' mama house
And you said that you hate me
Now the tone changed greatly
What you goin' through lately?

And did you love me or did you just like the way that you and I had f elt?
Disguisin' how you really feel, girl, sometimes it get hard to tell

And the more I think about it, shit, I'm better by myself
Bein' in love with you just can't be good for my health
Born alone, you die alone, so look out for yourself
Bein' in love with you just can't be good for my health
