Caskey

Woop! I love the hate, been boostin' my stamina
You don't wan' run up on me when I don't recognize ya 'cause it's gon na damage ya
I got so many charges that me and homies, we can't get into Canada
Circle is tight, I'm inside the 'rari with me and my Glock and my man ager
Keep to myself, I don't flash like the camera
I'm with a lil freak, named her Erica
Can't say her real name, she ain't from America
And the shit Trump been on lately is terrible Laugh to the bank, that was always hysterical
My mama said I was a miracle
I just thank God that we eatin' steak 'cause for so long it was just cereal

When it come to money, I got the blueprint
I'm good on the money, dog, don't need yo' two cents
If I ain't on top then, I don't know who is I just made my circle tight, then cut off the loose ends
Bitch, I got the blueprint
Ever notice that the ones hate never do shit?
That's why you gotta get the horns, you're with the bullshit
Bitch, I got the blueprint
I'm good on the money, I don't need your two cents (yeah)
I'm good on the money, I don't need your two cents

Thought I was stupid but I know what's happenin'
Pussy, I'm back again
When I pull up somewhere, I'm backin' in
When I go to Japan, I got the yen
Thought it was wrestlin'
How when I'm inside your city, I'm tappin' in Reason why I don't be buyin' no weed from you
'Cause when I shop, it's a pack of ten Bitch, I got the blueprint, my homies said stack it up
Don't let nobody else know that you too lit (go Caskey)
I said I got you, but somehow my neck ended up like a cruise ship
Respect to the OGs, but me and my homies we just on some new shit
I put the eight ball inside of the pocket, beware, I'll pull stick
