

Do That Shit Withoutcha

Caskey

Beats by Choc

We still ain't forget that shit you said
It's all good, but all ain't forgiven
When I'm wrong, I always admit it
We spend this money, but we still tryna get it, yeah

I had to do that shit without cha
It's all good, but all ain't forgiven
I had to do that shit without cha
When I'm wrong, I always admit it

Man, so many people I try to put on or put in position
And always, they're comin' up missin'
Gotta be careful with who you extendin' yourself to
They never give what they're given
Real ones, man, they hard to come by
Keepin' a eye out for them is a mission
I always expect the best out of people
People always end up slippin'
I had a homie that I paid the bills for
Got him a room at the house
Tour came around, he ain't even wanna sell merch
Fuck is that shit about?
People need to get their egos in check
I never seem to ask people for less
Of more than what I go and do by myself
Workin' by myself what I do best
'Cause I'm somebody I can bet on Roll my problems in a joint
You couldn't put yourself aside
I guess you had to prove a point
I couldn't slow down for nobody, man
I had to get it full speed
That's the truth and you know what the truth brings

We still ain't forget that shit you said
It's all good, but all ain't forgiven
When I'm wrong, I always admit it
We spend this money, but we still tryna get it, yeah

I had to do that shit without cha
It's all good, but all ain't forgiven
I had to do that shit without cha
When I'm wrong, I always admit it
I had to do that shit without cha
It's all good, but all ain't forgiven
I had to do that shit without cha
When I'm wrong, I always admit it

Self-made, man, I feel like Russ
Gold outta everything I touch
Y'all jump to any clique y'all want
They cool, but they ain't like us
C-A-S-K-E-Y
Ain't no other name out here I trust
Y'all worried 'bout who jumped ship

End up on the top of the game, I must
Man, motherfuckers switch
On the clique so quick when their first shot miss
And they lookin' at you like, "Damn
I never thought that it would be as hard as this"
And I'm lookin' at y'all like, "The fuck did you think that it was?
Y'all want the drink and the buzz
But never wanna put no work in, overtime
Then expect to be makin' enough"
Man, I'm all about growth
But I can't slow down my growth for a grown man
I'll lend a helpin' hand 'til my hand turn blue
But it's no hand-outs, I don't hold hands
Me and hustle got a romance
And me and broke motherfuckers got no plans
And you changed on the team when you said that shit
Fixin' [?]

We still ain't forget that shit you said
It's all good, but all ain't forgiven
When I'm wrong, I always admit it
We spend this money, but we still tryna get it, yeah

I had to do that shit without cha
It's all good, but all ain't forgiven
I had to do that shit without cha
When I'm wrong, I always admit it
I had to do that shit without cha
It's all good, but all ain't forgiven
I had to do that shit without cha
When I'm wrong, I always admit it
