

High All The Time

Caskey

I seen it from afar, the way I'm feelin', it's spoiled
(In the kitchen and it's Taysty)
I peeped that fake love way too early, can't support it

White on my eyes, white on my wrist, white on my ride
Why would I lie? Lil bitch, I'm high all the time
No such thing as too close, it's right on my side
No such thing as comin' down, I'm high all the time

Pour another mix and watch me come alive, I'm high all the time
I wanted the whole world, but I compromised Bitch, I'm a king and they knew it from the jump 'cause it was prophesized
They try touchin' a ring or anything on me, it'll be homicide
Ooh, I thought they knew that already Preach, I'm in space like I do armageddon
Then, I'm out the window of a new nine-eleven
Took the good and the bad and I tied 'em together

White on my eyes, white on my wrist, white on my ride
Why would I lie? Lil bitch, I'm high all the time
No such thing as too close, it's right on my side
No such thing as comin' down, I'm high all the time

I seen it from afar, the way I'm feelin', it's spoiled
I peeped that fake love way too early, can't support it
I feel so [?] don't know why [?]
I don't miss any details 'cause it's all important
(In the kitchen and it's Taysty)
