Luck??

Caskey

First, I'd like to thank myself for all of this hustlin'
Made this on my own, I don't owe nobody nothin' (Anonymass)
They saw all the blood, sweat, and tears
Who brought luck in this conversation?
I don't want to hear nothin'

Surpassed all my high school friends
No Honda 'cause I do Benz
Built this house on my own, so sorry, I cannot invite you in
See life through a light blue lens
Open the sunroof on the Rolls Royce
That's when the light flew in
Seein' red like I read letters
Turned myself to a trendsetter
Two V's for the S on the diamonds
And the V stand for "vendetta"
They wasn't sick, but I told 'em to get better
Oh, and go get they little bread up
I've been stackin' for years and I still ain't fed up
I get the feta and mozzarella

First, I'd like to thank myself for all of this hustlin'
Made this on my own, I don't owe nobody nothin'
They saw all the blood, sweat, and tears
Who brought luck in this conversation?
I don't want to hear nothin'

Yeah, get them excuses from round me
'Cause I had all the odds bet against me
First car was a Dodge
I trap it, I turn that shit into a Bentley
And that's the name of my nephew
So he gonna be rich, evidently
Especially when his uncle been sellin' out shows
And chargin' for entry
God on my side so, Devil, don't tempt me
Them thangs you promised was empty
Keepin' my pride, it's Gucci, so I don't need Fendi
Or Prada and Louie, Chanel
I work 'til there's blood underneath all my nails
I swear, them COs ain't think
That I would be this rich when they booked me in jail
The road that I took was hell
But it still brought me here
Gotta get used to L's
In the end, gon' prevail
Fear the only thing I fear
Pain the only thing I feel
I don't need none that Hollywood shit
Give me somethin' real

First, I'd like to thank myself for all of this hustlin'
Made this on my own, I don't owe nobody nothin'
They saw all the blood, sweat, and tears
Who brought luck in this conversation?
I don't want to hear nothin'
I don't want to hear nothin'

I don't want to hear nothin'

I don't want to hear nothin'
