Caskey

Yeah, yeah
If you're hearin' my voice right now, that means you just made history, ha h a
If you're hearin' my voice right now that means it's impossible for you to b e a hater
$100 Mixtape shit
(In the kitchen and it's Taysty)
I go by the name of Hyllyte, and I'd like to say welcome, ha ha
I'd like to say welcome, Caskey, let's go

Okay, I'm overtime workin', I ain't borderline chillin'
Ain't like you could order my feelin'
When you made it through the fire and flames, you resilient
Reason why I don't ever change to make millions
I keep that fake shit far, my integrity close
I sold out the least, and it blessed me the most
If you had it like I did, you would definitely boast
I got the pearls on my gates and a heavenly dose
Toss 'em to the stars
Drinkin' to the moon and back, wood, that's full of mars
They tried to minimize us, but homie, we at large
Man, I don't know 'bout your goals, but I've been completin' ours
When they see me in real life, I'll be a cobra
I ain't finna internet troll ya
People dissin' me, I keep my composure
'Cause online, everybody ten times bolder

You know what I can't understand about you mafuckers, man?
(Online, everybody ten times bolder)
You're sittin' on the couch right now hatin' on a motherfucker gettin' money
(Online, everybody-)
Which means you're prob'ly not gettin' any money

Ayy, okay, my ... too big to be worried 'bout ya comments
I make art, y'all make content
My pursuit for this is constant, not respondent
And gettin' rich over night is nonsense
I've been signed to Cash Money and broke, independent and rich
I guess the state of mind you in change the way that you pitch
But bein' on that shelf only gave me an itch
To shit on everybody out there who was prayin' we'd miss
My homie, Mitch, said, "You was s'posed to be the one"
But truth be told, I'm the only one
And all that shit I let slide and them favors I did, y'all owe me one
Once I get the hit, that's a hole in one
Even if it took nine years to turn into Obi-Wan
I still got the force, I made it off of a sober run
People don't know half the shit I had to overcome
They stop reapin' the benefits
People gon' act like you didn't exist
Reason why I never go reminisce
I dip set, but I still do ya like Jadakiss
I'm Pusha T to Clipse, the sun to the eclipse
I Run-DMC, I summit the abyss
I'm gonna plead the fifth, I'm under the [?]
And I watch the throne 'til I'm tired of bein' a prince
