

Can you recognize a good thing, when it's there in front of you?
Made her cum even if she don't know what it's comin' to
You know I get what I want and I wanted you
She ain't doin' OnlyFans, but she could do it if she wanted to
Paid, she ain't cheap, car note ain't a lease
Fuck with me, I put you in a condo on the beach
Them other guys brought you other things, but never peace
Got a taste, I'm tryna give yo' ass a better piece

No, give 'em no energy
Tell 'em that the feelings sold separately
Fly to LA, take a stroll through Beverly
'Bout to sin for ya, so heavenly

Tell you that you bad when you ride, you ain't bad at it
Beat it up, talkin' to that pussy like I'm mad at it
Take a break for five minutes, then I'm back at it
Say that they ain't love you right, well let me take a stab at it
From the O so let me give your body some
All natural, ain't never got yo' body done
Who make you cum like the kid, girl? Probably none
I mean, I'm probably the one

Can you recognize a good thing, when it's there in front of you?
Made her cum even if she don't know what it's comin' to
You know I get what I want and I wanted you
She ain't doin' OnlyFans, but she could do it if she wanted to
Paid, she ain't cheap, car note ain't a lease
Fuck with me, I put you in a condo on the beach
Them other guys brought you other things, but never peace

You're not a diamond in the rough, but you a little rough around the edges
Girls with attitude, I got a fetish
Head downward 'cause you know where you're headed
Can't let you go because I know I'd regret it
Girls in your circle, they gettin' jealous, they never cheer for ya
They was just cloudin' your vision and made it clear to ya
Bein' partial ain't somethin' I ever been a part of
When you the baddest bitch, it make 'em hate you harder
Fuck it though, that man on the left, tell 'em hold they breath
Losin' them had you thinkin' it was over
But you trippin', it ain't over yet
Y'all just on two different flights and they don't connect

Can you recognize a good thing, when it's there in front of you?
Made her cum even if she don't know what it's comin' to
You know I get what I want and I wanted you
She ain't doin' OnlyFans, but she could do it if she wanted to
Paid, she ain't cheap, car note ain't a lease
