

Roll The Dice

Caskey

Ay, told her hop in that

Yeah, yeah, told her hop in that, stat
Little bih, ass so fat, so you know she gotta bend it right back
I don't play with them racks, spend it, I'ma get it right back
Bitch [?]
I could put a snow coat all on my wrist
They hating on me, tell 'em suck my dick
Diamonds, they're blowing the kiss out the [?]
[?] from the bottom, no pot to go piss
Hold up, let me pop my shit
Pull up in a [?] no top, I'ma drop my shit
Thirty on me, that Glock don't miss
You better not start no shit
I had to beat the odds
Hundred thousand staring at my eyes
So many times that they left me for dead
So you know that I had to just come alive
In this bitch, I'm working overtime
Take the check and get it notarized
Yeah, they start to envy 'cause I'm in my twenties
But I'm stacking money like the older guys
Pull up in the ghost like it's a poltergeist
Break down the coke like it's a bowl of rice
Yeah, I really had to roll the dice
It's the game of life, can't play it twice

Bitch, I had to roll the dice (roll the dice)
Had to go new heights (go new heights)
Every time I step out (step out)
Bitch, I gotta show my ice (yeah, yeah)
Told 'em once, I done told y'all twice (told y'all twice)
Everything gotta go y'all price (go y'all price)
Had to run it up on my own (oh)
Been that way my whole life

Okay, before the crib got amenities
I got a finer place with serenity
I got the artillery for enemies
But then again, so did John F. Kennedy
Homie, the art always been a remedy
I got a start, finish, they remember me
Not 'cause my car wasn't from assembly
But 'cause my heart never came with penalty
People exchanging my energy, keeping me drained
And I never equally gain
The pen and the weed got something in common
It's hard to keep it contained
My hands dirty, I been stretching my reaches
I want the best come to beaches
My homie said he need a hellcat
Mama said I need Jesus
I just need millions to touch my account at the regions
That and allegiance
People who tell ya they're never gon' change
They play like the seasons
I'm finding it odd, you tryna get even

But I'm never grieving
I'm running it up to tell ya this evening

Bitch, I had to roll the dice (roll the dice)
Had to go new heights (go new heights)
Every time I step out (step out)
Bitch, I gotta show my ice (yeah, yeah)
Told 'em once, I done told y'all twice (told y'all twice)
Everything gotta go y'all price (go y'all price)
Had to run it up on my own (oh)
