

Too Thirsty

Caskey

...tribute it to the world

Sippin' out the cup until it spills
Spendin' too much time in your feelings
Sorry, dog, don't know how it feels
I'm in Hollywood in the hills
Sippin' out the cup until it spills
Spendin' too much time in your feelings
Sorry, dog, don't know how it feels
I'm in Hollywood in the hills

I'ma keep it authentic while they spread mo' lies
This environment gon' make a pitbull thrive
Got somethin' on my waist, I ain't gon' say it fo' times
Flooded-flooded traphouse, bitches doin' coke lines
I done made it outta that, I ain't gon' stop, it's go time
Lookin' back, dog, I did this shit in no time
You can't son me, I lost my daddy back in '09
You ain't got half the hustle I had in me '05
I done signed on myself, I don't need the cosign
Jumped up off the porch, went into a nosedive
I beat up on a pussy then I fuckin' go live
I be on my A game like a fuckin' roll tide, God damn

I can't
Fuck with you when we don't vibrate
How you lookin' at my jewels, gettin' irate?
Y'all lil too thirsty, need to hydrate
I can't
Be around that bullshit, nah, mane
How you lookin' at my jewels, gettin' irate?
Y'all-y'all lil too thirsty, need to hydrate

Sippin' out the cup until it spills
Spendin' too much time in your feelings
Sorry, dog, don't know how it feels
I'm in Hollywood in the hills
Sippin' out the cup until it spills (too thirsty)
Spendin' too much time in your feelings (too thirsty)
Sorry, dog, don't know how it feels (too thirsty)
I'm in Hollywood in the hills (too thirsty)

Too thirsty
Too thirsty
Too thirsty
Too thirsty

I'ma keep it authentic while they spread mo' lies
Rollin' through a hood you claim but got no ties
My homie thought that he was gon' get rich off mo' pies
'til someone shot his car up with a smokin' fo'-five
I done changed up my mind state and where I coincide
People stay the same 'cause they scared to go inside
Of they own thoughts, so they life not a slow rise
Everything crash and burn, it's a nosedive
I done switched up, my life trauma
Turn it into somethin' I could wear with honor

I cleansed everything and not inside the sauna
By thirty-five, I'll be bigger than Madonna
Yeah, and it mean mo' to me 'cause I could've been a goner
When people care more about they pride and persona
They jealous of you when they see the commas
That's why I'm

Sippin' out the cup until it spills
Spendin' too much time in your feelings
Sorry, dog, don't know how it feels
I'm in Hollywood in the hills
Sippin' out the cup until it spills (too thirsty)
Spendin' too much time in your feelings (too thirsty)
