

Peace

Cass McCombs

Don't know when I'll see you
Until then
Don't know much, it turns out
About who stays and who goes
Until we meet again
I bid you peace, my friend
Nothing to conquer
Nothing to defend

Peace is what we say when we say goodbye
When we say goodbye we say peace
We say peace
We say peace

Through the crooked places
Through the doldrums
There's no need to squint
Because it's plain to see
Dark of the dark
Be afraid, disconsolate
With peace wrapping you all around
Peace wrapping you all around
Peace wrapping you all around

Peace is what we say when we say goodbye
When we say goodbye we say peace
We say peace
We say peace

Don't know when I'll see you
Maybe nevermore
Don't know much, it turns out
About the laws of the Sibyl
So take this with you
Where you go
Keep it close
When things don't make sense

Peace is what we say when we say goodbye
When we say goodbye we say peace
We say peace

Peace is what we say when we say goodbye
When we say goodbye we say peace
We say peace
We say peace