Alien

Cassadee Pope

You can have a lot of friends and still feel alone
But there's a lot of hands trying to mold you cause they think they can You're a band geek, you're a popular;
A broken heart or a heartbreaker
What do you do when you're in between?
How do you label a freak like me?

I'm a blackbird flying in a white fence town
Got a church pew heart and a rock n' roll mouth
I'm a straight A kid with the fake ID
A little somewhere in between

I'm a dark horse running where you can't run wild
Got a good girl soul with a fast lane smile
I'm a homecoming queen with the tattoo sleeve
A 501 blue dream
What's the point of fitting in?
Cause at some point I know we've all been
Alien
Alien

I'm an open book full of mysteries with the runaway heart on a settle down s treet
I'm an outsider just looking in
Not a one or a two or a perfect ten
I'm a wildflower growing through the concrete, always somewhere I shouldn't be

I'm a blackbird flying in a white fence town

Got a church pew heart and a rock n' roll mouth
I'm a straight A kid with the fake ID
A little somewhere in between

I'm a dark horse running where you can't run wild
Got a good girl soul with a fast lane smile
I'm a homecoming queen with the tattoo sleeve
A 501 blue dream
What's the point of fitting in?
Cause at some point I know we've all been
Alien

Do you ever feel like you were born in the wrong place in the wrong time but there ain't nothing wrong with living your life

Alien

Yeah, I'm a blackbird flying in a white fence town
Got a church pew heart and a rock n' roll mouth
I'm a straight A kid with the fake ID
A little somewhere in between

I'm a dark horse running where you can't run wild
Got a good girl soul with fast lane smile
I'm a homecoming queen with the tattoo sleeve
A 501 blue dream
Oh what's the point of fitting in?

Cause at some point I know we've all been
Alien
