

Proved You Wrong

Cassadee Pope

Cold as ice, your words cut like knives
I deserve a prize, for sticking around this long

You say I'm nothing without you
And no one loves me like you do
Always left me feeling black and blue
Well this can go on and on and on

But I hey I'm breaking free just watch me walk away
Had your hooks in me but I escaped
I don't need excuses
Done with your abuses
Telling me that I'm not strong baby
Hey just listen to the song cause
I-I-I proved you wrong
I-I-I proved you wrong

It's easier letting go of us
Said I didn't even have the guts
Yeah, here I am backing up
I'm taking my heart back cause I've had enough

But I hey I'm breaking free just watch me walk away
Had your hooks in me but I escaped
I don't need excuses
Done with your abuses
Telling me that I'm not strong baby
Hey just listen to the song cause
I-I-I proved you wrong
I-I-I proved you wrong

Hey I'm done with you and all the lies you made
You were such a mistake

But I hey I'm breaking free just watch me walk away
Had your hooks in me but I escaped
I don't need excuses
Done with your abuses
Telling me that I'm not strong baby
Hey just listen to the song cause
I-I-I proved you wrong
I-I-I proved you wrong
