

Perjury

Cassidy

Bars is back

These niggas out here still stealing my bars committing perjury and all of that

These niggas gotta be hommid

I'm about to show them how you really suppose to carry

I got more heat than that Canadian bacon

My niggas clap drums have guns that's arrib shaking

That got kick like a feel good

MY team will roll

In the field throwing bullets like gravy and pink

You start to shine niggas is shady waiting to put your lights out

So pray you got a place to stay up in christ house

I stay iced out never been to the white house

For seeing presidents from a house I was selling white out

And what I write about make my bars hard to bite

Bars keeping still you keep stealing all the bars you write

Fuck all the hype you been a bitch all your life

But to shoot a chick push you into harlem nights

That bar was nice cause it was about me

Don't diss in a house breaking but I don't give a shit

You dissed Lil Baby clout chasing it ain't about nathan til you laying up in gravy with your scalp baking

I might aim the thing cause life ying and tying

Its like Christ wouldn't exist without satan

I got hitters on the couch waiting

And if the text from me come out and step on the beat drum

A dead man I need to see one

Hit my what's up so I can see what's happening freerun

That mean I got a dick its a he-she gunning

Dickcab it mean it can fuck you up precum

Bitch you think we dumb you ain't from where we from

Canada got free healthcare you gonna need some

Its stolen bars in all the records that he done

None of his shit is original, shit pitiful

I was selling records for the game went digital

I started from the bottom like a midget do but niggas knew

The industry was pissing me off when I had shit to do

After my lil bitch was due my accident was critical

If you do it big and they can't find a bigger you

They will get a look a like that ain't lit as you

You can't pay homage biting off a nigga too

Dog you bite off way too much shit to chew

I'm getting sick of you culture vultures

Yo I hope you brought a gun cause my youngest son big than you

Its difficult to win when nobody talk as slick as you

And there ain't rappers miserable that can think as quick as you

So they think of ways to try and steal shit from you without giving credit

Pathetic and premissable

You be stealing from other niggas too

And in my old tracks you spit old rap like it was you

And you spit the whole rap like it was you and I'm

Not the one who created you I hated it

Young niggas trying run with my outdated shit

I may be lil wesson and lil pop jada smith

You ain't never use a razor to shave a brick and use a priwreck to use it st rength and make it flip

And how you clap at the hot girls favorite chick
Tory when I heard that story that shit made me sick
My lazy crazy shit
And I been cute my whole life I look nice in my baby pics
I'm not a baby bitch I was born in 82 and knew what I was here for that's 86
You on some crazy shit you must be on a lace front
I got a street sweeper this case slayer if you can't stunt
Boy you look like a premature dinosaur
And you going bald you need a lace front
Its straight skunk in this backwood
Genetrication is white people moving into the black hood
This guy can get his shit genetrified
Crack is knocking to the white meat tapping pockets like fashion
You cats sure can't pay homage I'm your inspiration
I'm audictic but y'all gimmicks imitation that's in the taking
But life like a sims game with the stick I'm holding I'm controlling the simulation
I'm innovation you you emulating copy that
I'm the one you cats copying you the copy cat
If I don't get guap from rap I can hit poppy that I shot a opp but a opp never shot me
You can't sing or do regge you gotta rap
And you gotta write it yourself to get props for that Stop the cap you listen to some bars that I said already
You took notes like the secretary
Corse I know you thought I was the best already but committing perjury wasn't neccarssy
Wait fuck the hate cause I'm legendary
You hold enough weight to get them off your back
