Cassie

I can't imagine my life without you
They just don't understand, they'll never understand
I can't believe I could get myself into this
It's part two of this shit, but I can't let go

Remember them days, you would stare at my face
And I would look the other way, oh heaven's, just in case (Ooh)
A stupid girl look on the side (Ooh), send an e-mail bout you and I (Ooh)
If it got back we would just die (Ooh), if it got back we would just lie

One day, you took that step so special, I got fuzzy warm inside
I waited patiently to get you, now we don't have to hide

Together we don't have to hide (Hi haters)
Together we don't have to hide (Hi haters)
Together we don't have to hide (Hi haters)
Together we don't have to hide (I'd hate on us too)
Together we don't have to hide (I'd hate on us too)
Together we don't have to hide (I'd hate on us too)
Together we don't have to hide (I'd hate on us too)
Together we don't have to hide

Sometimes I wanna ball, buy you things in the mall
If they see who we are, hope she don't get that call from me (Ooh)
A stupid girl look on the side (Ooh), send an e-mail bout you and I (Ooh)
If it got back we would just die (Ooh), if it got back we would just lie

One day (One day), you took that step so special (Special), I got fuzzy warm

Better have that chopper, but the ADT call that improper
I jerk big industries, sweep the mafia
It's so hot inside, don't cut your eyes you ain't got to hide
You're with me now, playboy P now
Two girls but I'd love to have three now
They bleed out to do it, restaurants we eat out the newest
SLR pumping Leona Lewis, wave to the haters let them see how we're doin'

Ooh what a scandal, the camera's flashing your crew
You want my man no, you can pick at us with us too
Can't hold my hand though, but we got matchin' tattoos
