Ayo my life full of hardships

I know I act like I got this but it ain't easy, everything is a process

I'm living out my pockets

Too many problems I don't know how to solve them

Borrow money too often, I'm running out of options

[?] my friends know, you always wonder how I keep up the tempo

And now corona got all of the shows cancelled

Music my heart, ayo I bleed through the pencil

I, I keep my chin up and choose to smile

Ayy that's the one special power I utilise

I could give a fuck if I'm broke or I'm crucified

As long as I get to preform for you tonight

It's just you and I, I bring the mood and vibe

I keep it (Hot! Hot!) But I ain't lucifer, uh uh

Ayo, I know everything ain't great but tonight we celebrate, [?]

We gon' celebrate celebrate (Yeah yeah), we gon' celebrate this evening

Ccelebrate celebrate (Yeah yeah), we gon' celebrate this evening (We gon' celebrate tonight)

Ccelebrate celebrate (Yeah yeah), we gon' celebrate this evening (Ayo! Ayo!)

Ccelebrate celebrate (Yeah yeah), we gon' celebrate this evening

(Ayo! Ayo!)

Ayo my mom's getting sickly

She gettin' old and she miss me

So every time she see me, she will force to kiss me

When I was younger I would hate that shit

But life's short and she here, can't replace that shit

She raised a king and there is nothing I could pay back with

But I could promise I'ma put you in a Maybach whip

And they gon' say that's lit

And you gon' pull up in the crib in the freshest Gucci dresses like "It is what it is"

I wanna celebrate tonight, cause I know that I'm blessed, both parents alive
And I'm bouta be a dad, this shit is trippy as hell
Maloba nyana ne kele pickinienie as well
Nou bo malome bare "O senya nako patel'"
Lebala ka the girls, de chicky bo sabawel'
Well, I know everything ain't great but tonight let's celebrate, [?]
