Live from the belly of the beast
When die, I'll be standing on my feet
(When I go 6 feet yeah)
Money over everything
I'ma make a great tooth fairy to my niece
I don't even know when I'm a peak
To be honest
All these niggas claim they don't listen
But they still wait stay up for my leaks
(Tell me how do you live)
Just so they could sub me on the timelines
I don't even show everything mother fucker what see is just the highlights
Yeah welcome to the highlife
Where all of the diamonds we have on your chains and our watches are real
She said she missed me
I told her bitch you don't miss me
You miss the way I made you feel
I keep it trill
She said that she want Versace now
I'm having a son so there's none of that
I gadda save all my money now
