Push N Pull

Cassyette

We keep getting personal
Back and forth, we push and pull
We keep getting personal
Back and forth, we push and pull

I am not your enemy, so leave me alone
Back and forth, we push and pull, never letting go
I could give you everything, now put on a show
I don't wanna leave
What you want from me?

I never wanted to adore you
(Ooh-oh-oooh)
I should've left you on the line
Said "I'm cracking at my core"
(Ooh-oh-oooh)
Back and forth, we push and pull, never letting go

We keep getting personal
Back and forth, we push and pull
We keep getting personal
Back and forth, we push and pull

I don't need your energy, told you to go home
'Cause you came and took the best of me, now I'm all alone
You're giving me these reasons to hang up on you on the phone
It was destiny that I don't wanna leave

I never wanted to adore you
(Ooh-oh-oooh)
I should've left you on the line
Said "I'm cracking at my core"
(Ooh-oh-oooh)
Back and forth, we push and pull, never letting go (letting go)

We keep getting personal (kinda personal, baby)
Back and forth, we push and pull
We keep getting personal
Back and forth, we push and pull

Now I'm calling (I'm calling)
Gave you all the time we've spent
Me, your only (your only)
I'm talking to you, now you gonna come through
'Cause I don't want you walking away

I never wanted to adore you
(I never wanted to adore you)
I should've left you on the line
(I should've left you, left you on the line)
Said I'm cracking at my core
(I am cracking at my core)
Back and forth, we push and pull, never letting go

I never wanted to adore you
(I never wanted to adore you)
I should've left you on the line

Said I'm cracking at my core
(I am cracking at my core)
Back and forth, we push and pull, never letting go

Back and forth, we push and pull, never letting go
(Never letting go)
Back and forth, we push and pull, never letting go
(Never letting go)
