

Take Take Take

Cassyyette

Pretty delusion
It must be nice inside your mind
No consequences
No conscience for what's wrong or right
Treating me badly
Using everybody for your gain
You almost had me
But I see through your petty little game

(You...) you're so impatient
(You...) oh, you've been hating
(You...) you're so frustrating
I'm sick and tired what's wrong with you

Take take take it all
Cause you never gave a shit about it
The way you stop to fall
You're blaming everybody else about it
Burning all your bridges
You're always [?] into the truth
You take take take it all
So I can't give, anymore to you

Drip drip drip you're the sick in my mouth
Not a stain on my lips only in it for clout
You say that we're friends and I'm staring to doubt
And I bet you say dumb when I'm calling you out

(You...) you're so impatient
(You...) oh, you've been hating
(You...) you're so frustrating
I'm sick and tired whats wrong with you

Take take take it all
Cause you never gave a shit about it
The way you stop to fall
You're blaming everybody else about it
Burning all your bridges
You're always [?] into the truth
You take take take it all
So I can't give, anymore to you

I don't wanna stitch it up
Cause if I do you'll just rip it up again
Hit the wall, I called your bluff
I'm not going through this shit again
I can't take this anymore

You, you, fuck you

(Take take take it all)

Take take take it all
Cause you never gave a shit about it
The way you stop to fall
You're blaming everybody else about it
Burning all your bridges

You're always [?] into the truth
You take take take it all
So I can't give, anymore to you
