

A Boy Like Me

Cast

If anybody told me so
I'd never have believed it could be true
That there would be a boy like me
Could ever have a chance to make a move
At all with a girl like you

But I can't say what I'm feeling
Every time that she just makes her way past
Can't help but believe in what's left of these dreams I've got
And I guess now we're old enough

So let me tell you how it is
She became aware and noticed me
For every time I turned to look
I found that she was gazing back at me
Oh my now I can't believe
What she sees in a boy like me

I can't say what I'm feeling
Every time that she just makes her way past
Can't help but believe in what's left of these dreams I've got
And I guess now we're old enough

And who knows what tomorrow brings
'Cause I think I'm on to bigger things
I got a feeling that my luck might change
At last with a girl like you

I can't say what I'm feeling
Every time that she just makes her way past
Can't help but believe in what's left of these dreams I've got
And I guess now we're old enough
But I can't say what I'm feeling
Every time that she just makes her way past
Can't help but believe in what's left of these dreams I've got
And I guess now we're old enough
