

Calling Out Your Name

Cast

Calling out to all who feel afraid
I'm calling out to all who feel the pain
Let me hear you say
I'm calling out, I'm calling out your name

Never let them tell you how to live your life
Never let them tell you what is wrong or right
There's a feeling that you have, you keep inside
There's a feeling that you have that you can't hide

I'm calling out, I'm calling out your name

Never let them tell you how it is to feel
There's a feeling that you've got that you can't lose
There's a feeling that you have that feels so true
