

Curtains

Cast

Nothing will take you away from yourself
So I've resigned to be all the things that I know I've got to be
But nothing will take you away from yourself

When I get to wake up the middle of the night
When I get to sleeping, sun is shining bright
So bright
So bright
All I wanna do is sleep

(Together together together together)
Is sleep
(Together together together together)

Nothing will take you away from yourself
So I've resigned to be all the things that I know I've got to be
But nothing will take you away from yourself

When I get to wake up the middle of the night
When I get to sleeping, sun is shining bright
So bright
So bright
All I wanna do is sleep

(Together together together together)
Is sleep
(Together together together together)

Get together to be one
Get together to belong
Get together to belong and to be one
With everyone, for everyone

(Together together together together)
(Together together together together)
(Together together together together)
(Together together together together)

If they get to take away
What they've yet to take away
What they've yet to take a take a take a take a take a take a take ake a take a take a take a take a take a take a