

Not Afraid of the World

Cast

No, I'm not afraid to die
I'm just so afraid to be living
Living my life
And I'm not afraid of this world
It's just the sadness and hatred
In which it is filled

Lord knows I've only myself to blame
I did what was done when I sealed my fate
Everything changed almost every way
What good is my life if I lived in vain
But this could be the one that's eluded everyone
This could be the one for you
For you

Though I'm not prepared to accept
That there ain't nothing left in this whole wide world worth so mething to me
And I'm not inclined to believe
The stories they're telling me in the papers and on the TV

Lord knows I've only myself to blame
I did what was done when I sealed my fate
Everything changed almost every way
What good is my life if I lived in vain
But this could be the one that's eluded everyone
This could be the one for you, for you

This could be the one that's eluded everyone
This could be the one for you, for you
For you, for you and me
Yeah you and me, for you and me
For you and you you you, you and me, yeah
For you and you you you you you you and me
You and you you you you, you and me
For you and me, yeah you and me
You and me, you and me
You and me, you and me
