Cat Burns

Boy crazy, poor baby, told that's all you can be
Pointless dating, hearts not racing
Wonder why you're not happy
Oh, you smile when she's around
But your head hasn't figured it out
Ooh
Boy crazy, poor baby, ha ha ah ah ah

I can't wait 'til you get older
Lose that chip off your shoulder
You can love whoever
Mm, there's so much that you will discover
This bit don't last forever
I promise it gets so much better

Daydreaming, can't stop thinking
Of the ones that I had
Each time they turn around, open their mouth
You forget everything they said
Don't realize you smile when they're around
But your head hasn't figured it out
Poor baby, it's so crazy, ha ha ah ah ah

I can't wait 'til you get older
Lose that chip off your shoulder
You can love whoever
Mm, there's so much that you will discover
This bit don't last forever
I promise it gets so much better

I can't wait, I can't wait
I can't wait, I can't wait until you get
I can't wait, I can't wait
I can't wait, I can't wait until you get
I can't wait, I can't wait
I can't wait, I can't wait until you get
I can't wait, I can't wait
I can't wait, I can't wait until you get

I can't wait 'til you get older
Lose that chip off your shoulder
You can love whoever
Mm, there's so much that you will discover
This bit don't last forever
I promise it gets so much better
