

Do You Know Me

Cat Burns

I caught all these feelings but you never caught them back
Cause you and me together, oh we'd be the perfect match
I thought we were on the same wave
But you were on a different page
It's such a shame
That you don't feel the same
I caught all these feelings but you never caught them back
Cause you and me together, oh we'd be the perfect match
I thought we were on the same wave
You were on a different page
It's such a shame
That you don't feel the same

Well maybe it was in my head
Or maybe I misread
All the feelings we shared
Oh were they even shared?
Well maybe it was in my head
Or maybe I misread
All the feelings we shared
Oh were they even shared?

Or did you even care?

Was it all a dream
You and me
Did you ever tell me that you wanted me
Was it all a dream
You and me
I know you but do you know me
Was it all a dream
You and me
I know you but do you know me

Do you know me
Do you know me
Do you know me
Do you know me
Do you know me
Do you know me
I know you but do you know me

So I caught all these feelings but you never caught them back
Just tell me what you think and I wanna know where I'm at
Cause you see you and me together, oh we'd be the perfect match
It's such a shame
That you don't feel the same
I caught all these feelings but you never caught them back
Cause you see you and me together, oh we'd be the perfect match
It's such a shame
That you don't feel the same

Well maybe it was in my head
Or maybe I misread
All the feelings we shared
Oh were they even shared?

Well maybe it was in my head
Or maybe I misread
All the feelings we shared
Oh were they even shared?

Or did you even care?

Was it all a dream
You and me
Did you ever tell me that you wanted me
Was it all a dream
You and me
I know you but do you know me
Was it all a dream
You and me
I know you but do you know me

Do you know me
Do you know me
Do you know me
Do you know me
Do you know me
Do you know me
I know you but do you know me

Was I being delusional?
Was it even real?
Was I being delusional?
Was it even real?
But baby if you could see
What I see
Then you would know
That we're meant to be
