

Even

Cat Burns

La-la-la-la
La-la

Wish I could lay my head to rest with a little more money
I wouldn't worry
'Bout a trick, a miss, a hit or a stupid anybody
There ain't a hurry

Maybe the dark never comes to light
Shine as bright, treated right
Thought we would fall but we always lose
Tie my shoes, ready

We talk the same, dress for fame
Why does no one else believe in
Us the same? Never change
Guess they never played us even

Guess they never played us even
Guess they never played us even

Wish I didn't have to climb twice as high
For them to see me, isn't it crazy
That if I raise my voice or speak my mind
That I risk everything being taken from me?

Maybe the dark never comes to light
Shine as bright, treated right
Thought we would fall but we always lose
Tie my shoes, ready

We talk the same, dress for fame
Why does no one else believe in
Us the same? Never change
Guess they never played us even

Maybe the dark never comes to light
Shine as bright, treated right
Thought we would fall but we always lose
Tie my shoes, ready

We talk the same, dress for fame
Why does no one else believe in
Us the same? Never change
Guess they never played us even