

People have been looking at me different
Loving every sound out of my mouth
They wanna kiss it
The way you're looking at me
I'm making a prediction
You'll end up in my big bed in a minute

Must be something in the air
Must be the way I did my hair
Must be my year, the signs are there
Everything aligned
I'm high
When the moon's in

Gemini, Gemini
Anything can happen tonight
Gemini, Gemini
Anything can happen
Between you and I

Anything can happen
Between you and I

I think you're about to call me over
Judging by the looks you give over your shoulder
Pass the lime
I see your drinking that tequila
Or margaritas it doesn't matter
When the moon's in

Gemini, Gemini
Anything can happen tonight
Gemini, Gemini
Anything can happen
Between you and I

Gemini, Gemini
Anything can happen tonight
Gemini, Gemini
Anything can happen

Must be the places that I've been
Must be the perfume on my skin
Mercury's in retrograde again
Everything's aligned
I'm high
When the moon's in

Gemini, Gemini
Anything can happen tonight
Gemini, Gemini
Anything can happen
Between you and I

Anything can happen
Between you and I
