

Immortal Lovers

Cat Burns

Taking it in, soaking the view
The sun is shining while I'm chilling with you
Now the deep blue skies match your, deep blue eyes
As we're sitting on the beach, watching the sun rise yeah
I never knew that I would fall like this
Every time I see your face baby I just wanna kiss you
Baby I just wanna kiss you

Now the Summer's nearly over
But baby I told ya
Good love lasts forever
So you and me, together

We'll be immortal lovers
We'll be immortal lovers

I've been trying to mend this broken heart for so long
I never knew I could fall in love until you came along
Well baby your laugh, your smile
I think that we can do this for a while
You and me, the [?], somebody pinch me
Cause it feels like a drea-ea-eam
Feels like a drea-ea-eam
Feels like a drea-ea-eam
Oh, Oh

Now the Summer's nearly over
But baby I told ya
Good love lasts forever
So you and me, together

We'll be immortal lovers
We'll be immortal lovers

Now the Summer's nearly over
And baby I told ya
Good love lasts forever
So you and me, together

(We'll be immortal lovers) We'll be immortal lovers
(We'll be immortal lovers) We'll be immortal lovers
(We'll be immortal lovers) We'll be immortal lovers
(We'll be immortal lovers)

You taught me how to feel again

All these memories I'll never forget
You'll stay in my heart forever
In my mind we'll still be together
Ooh, Ooh

Now the Summer's nearly over
And baby I told ya
Good love lasts forever
So you and me, together
We'll be immortal lovers
We'll be immortal lovers
We'll be immortal lovers
We'll be immortal lovers
