

low self esteem

Cat Burns

I live too much in my head
I think it's time I move somewhere different
A place where there's no regret
I'm getting tired of not believing
That I'm okay the way that I am
But this home I've built is hanging by a thread

I'm so scared of you loving me
I've convinced myself that all you'll do is leave
When I say there's others better
Know it gets you kind of fed up
But don't take it personally
I'm just scared (Scared)
'Cause I have, I have, I have
Low self-esteem

Is it hard to keep seeing my like this?
When you've said you like someone with confidence
God I'm trying, know it's not attractive
I'm getting tired of not believing
But I'm okay the way that I am
Am

I'm so scared of you loving me
I've convinced myself that all you'll do is leave
When I say there's others better
Know it gets you kind of fed up
But don't take it personally
I'm just scared (Scared)
'Cause I have, I have, I have
Low self-esteem

I'm too hard on myself
Think it's bad for my health
Heal this heart on my sleeve
I've got low self-esteem

I'm too hard on myself
Think it's bad for my health
Heal this heart on my sleeve
I've got low self-esteem

I'm too hard on myself (I'm too hard on myself)
