Cat Burns

Oh-oh-oooh
Oh-oh-oooh

It's kind of sad
How we spent years fighting for something just to end
Like that
And it's kind of mad
Everything changed with just a simple conversation
Now we can't take it back
As I look back

You hate that I'm an extrovert
And that extra part that you prefer
Of me would just stay home
I wish I'd known

I gave you my everything
Didn't everything mean anything?
You didn't see me at all
Now you won't see me no more
Blind to every sacrifice
I hope that when you look
You find you didn't see me at all
Now you won't see me
See me no more

Oh-oh-oooh
Oh-oh-oooh

So expectant
Anything I did for you, you weren't surprised
Or grateful, didn't even say "Thank you"
You were so sure of yourself
Thought you knew all that you wanted
But you failed to see what you had
And now I'm glad

'Cause I get my time back, my time back
I've already grown
Oh, I wish I'd known

I gave you my everything
Didn't everything mean anything?
You didn't see me at all
Now you won't see me no more
Blind to every sacrifice
I hope that when you look
You find you didn't see me at all
Now you won't see me
See me no more

Oh-oh-oh (Gave you my everything)
Oh-oh-oh
You didn't see me at all
Now you won't see me no more
(Oh, you were blind to every sacrifice)
You didn't see me at all

Now you won't see me
See me no more
