Islands

I want to rule the islands And I want to rule the sea But if you're not coming back I will sleep eternally

And I want no heavy diamonds And pearls crush my teeth I just want my sailor To sail back to me

Captain has a treasure He says I hold the key But old mangroves And sweet winds blow songs Of you and me

I want to rule the islands And I want to rule the sea But if you're not coming back I will sleep eternally