

Unhate

Cat Power

Anyone can tell you there's no more road to ride
Everyone will tell you there's no place to hide
There's no laws or rules to unchain your life
But the ones who couldn't make it, the ones who couldn't fake it
So glad we could make it out alive, alive

Everyone loves the fun so everyone came by
In the wind I crunch, I wanted to die
They gave me pills to let me calm myself
And my heart wants to go far away
Where nobody knows

Do you believe she said that?
Do you believe she said that?

I said, "I hated myself and I wanted to die"
Yeah, to die

Half of it is innocent, the other half is wise
The whole damn thing made no damn sense
I wish I could tell you a lie
Hey, come here, let me whisper in your ear
"I hated myself and I wanted to die"
Yeah, yeah,
No, no, no, no
No, no, no, no
No, no, no, no
Don't even try
