There are no castrations here In a chair you will be with me

We dance, we dance No-one will dance With us

Jump, jump, sing ...

They got some brazilian nuts For your engagements Check that expiration date, man It's later than you think

You can enjoy yourself I can enjoy myself You can enjoy yourself I can enjoy myself

Maybe we could dance together
Maybe we could dance together
But you know no-one will dance with us
You know no-one dares to dance with us

This time I see you
There will be
Fine times for ever
And you'll never get lost
