

He is True

Cat Stevens

Like falling dreams
Nothing's like it seems
Though it frightens you
And the reason is
'Cause it wasn't true

Faces come and go
(Faces come and go)
No one stays forever
Only names remembered
And those too
If they weren't true

Everything must change
(Everything must change)
But the One who made it
And only He can change it
Only He can
For He is true
For He is true
