

Train on a Hill

Cat Stevens

There's a train on a hill
And it's standing very still
There's a chain on the wheel

There's a peace in the air
But it's headed nowhere
'Cause the Earth just isn't fair

There's a road up ahead
And it's calling us to tread
But the people are too scared to move
So they just stay where they are

There's a man sitting down
And he's staring at the ground
While the sun rolls around
