

World o' Darkness

Cat Stevens

In this world of darkness, evil rules by night
But somewhere in the shadows, someone's seeking light

No one knows his neighbour here, nobody has the time
No one cares for anyone else in a world where the sun don't shine

Shamsia, Shamsia

Some sons dream of leaving while they're young at heart
But few choose the path towards the land beyond the dark
Who choose the path towards the land beyond the dark?
